presentation of

Problem Book

The issue is a collection of mathematical tasks, the story of which is based on social, political and economic problems of contemporary cities. Problem Book is to be used as experimental material for social studies classes at schools. The book is the result of cooperation between architects, sociologists and artists: Ivan Brazhkin, Oleksandr Burlaka, Dmytro Vorobyov, Anastasia Ryabova, Maksym Spivakov, Tzuchien Tho, Vladyslav Shapovalov. The project was realized within The Way of Enthusiasts exhibition (parallel project of the 13th International Architecture Biennale in Venice).

Participants:

Oleksandr Burlaka (architect, Curatorial Union Hudrada), Roksolana Mashkova (Independent Student Union Direct Action, "The Free School" project), Anastasia Ryabova (artist, initiator of publishing projects), Anastasia Riabchuk (lecturer at the Sociology Department of NaUKMA, editor of Commons magazine)
